Tuesday morning.
Aug. 27. 1918.

My dearest Mother,

This is written on the stationery you sent me and which I received yesterday afternoon. It is just what I wanted to gether with a loose leaf note book and pencils with rubbers as the pencils over here do not have rubbers on the end of each pencil.

I thank you for this stationery, pencil and note book. The note book, ^{is} just a nice size to carry in my pocket.

I am getting along all O.K. Also I received yesterday a package of Registers and Baptist Records from you and two packages of papers from Mr. W. T. Wildbarger.

I will write him soon but I wish you would call him and tell him how much I appreciated the papers and his fine letter two days ago.

I haven't yet had the chance to answer all of those fine letters received Sunday, but I will soon.

Mother, this is only a note this morning, will write soon.
Love of love, Your devoted son
T. Baye
